<tbody>
<tr>
<td>50 - 30</td>
<td>You should choose the 3,900 Plan, as your selections indicate a higher frequency of Dining. Keep a close eye on your budget— you may want to add to your Dining Plan in the spring.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>29 - 20</td>
<td>Either the 3,900 or the 3,400 Plan should work for you. You will want to think carefully about your nutrition needs, ability to budget, and how frequently you will be eating on-campus.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>19 - 15</td>
<td>You live in an apartment and like to cook. You are creative at maximizing your budget, shopping for groceries and crafting meals that last all week. The 3400 Plan would be your best bet.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>14 - 10</td>
<td>The 2950 Plan is great for you. Ideal for apartment residents because you can do your own shopping and cooking.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>9 - 7</td>
<td>You live in an apartment but spend a lot of time off campus, visiting friends and enjoying San Diego scenery. You do not need much, and that’s alright! Select the 2635 Plan.</td>
