Accessible Parking

If you have a Disabled Person (DP) placard or license plates, you can park in these spaces without a UCSD parking permit:

- Handicap-accessible spaces designated by the wheelchair symbol, found in every UCSD parking lot
- Metered spaces (no fee required)
- Spaces marked S, B, or A (see below for exception)

Disabled placards or plates alone are not valid in the following:

- Spaces marked in spaces “V” & “VP”
- Spaces posted “A Permit required 7 days a week/24 hours a day”
- Spaces marked “Reserved”
- Areas painted with crosshatching or marked “No Parking”
- Areas that are not designated parking spaces
- Red curb, fire lane or yellow commercial zones (unless license plate allows)
- Timed loading zones, beyond the specified time
