THURGOOD MARSHALL COLLEGE

The Thurgood Marshall College neighborhood is conveniently located at the center of campus: nothing is too far away! RIMAC campus recreation facility and distinctive Geisel Library are just minutes away, as well as a variety of lounges, including Angela’s Place, The Capitol Hill Room and Fireside lounge. These lounges are a perfect setting for meeting socials, and they can be reserved exclusively for events.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Marshall residence halls are made up of suites of triple, single, and double rooms that surround a spacious common area with a living room, large bathroom, and a patio. Marshall apartments are divided into lower and upper communities. Marshall Upper apartments feature single story buildings with a combination of single and double rooms, a kitchen, bathroom, living room and balcony. Marshall Lower apartments offer a combination of one and two story buildings which are also fully furnished and have a kitchen, bathroom, and living room.

AMENITIES

Bi-weekly cleaning of common areas, easy access to laundry facilities, and Wi-Fi are available in all residential areas. Option for Triton Blue and Triton Gold housekeeping services.

DINING

OceanView Restaurant*, the newest campus eatery, features à la carte dining options, including stone hearth pizzas, salads, Halal and Kosher options, as well as a coffee and gelato bar.

*Subject to closures during summer months.

SAMPLE LAYOUTS*