SIXTH COLLEGE

The Sixth College neighborhood features three communities all located near the center of campus with easy access to Price Center, Geisel Library, and the Canyon View Aquatic Center. Sixth residential halls are quaint buildings organized around a large grass quad, mirroring a park-like setting. Sixth Apartments and Matthews Apartments offer various layouts to promote a sense of belonging where it's easy to meet others.

ACCOMMODATIONS

Eight 2-story residence halls feature furnished suites with lounges and a mix of single, double, and triple bedrooms. Apartments feature a kitchen, outdoor patio, dining room, and living room, as well as a mix of bedrooms.

AMENITIES

Bi-weekly cleaning of common areas, easy access to laundry facilities, and Wi-Fi available in all resident areas. Option for Triton Blue and Triton Gold housekeeping services.

MEETING SPACES

The Lodge at Sixth offers conference space for up to 75 guests in addition to a side lounge with a break out capacity of an additional 15 guests. The Dogg House and the Quad offer additional space for studying and social programs.

DINING

Canyon Vista Restaurant, Warren's neighborhood Dining facility, boasts a breezy outdoor terrace overlooking the canyon, an indoor roaring fireplace, and an all-you care-to-eat menu.
